Statement: Applications must be submitted on an official NRA Foundation Grant Application form and include a budget worksheet, federal tax ID number, signed consideration agreement, IRS determination letter (if applicable), and a completed W9 form. Completed applications are forwarded to the appropriate State Fund Committee, where applications are reviewed and selected for recommendation of approval by the NRA Foundation Board of Trustees. Prior to approval, all applications receive a complete legal review for eligibility. Only allowable 501(c)(3) purposes or categories furthering the exempt purposes of the NRA Foundation are approved (see 990, Part III, for exempt purpose). Upon successful legal review, applications are forwarded to the Board of Trustees for final review.

Part II Declaration of Officer

6 ☐ I authorize the U.S. Treasury and its designated Financial Agent to initiate an ACH electronic funds withdrawal (direct debit) entry to the financial institution account indicated in the tax preparation software for payment of the organization's federal taxes owed on this return, and the financial institution to debit the entry to this account. To revoke a payment, I must contact the U.S. Treasury Financial Agent at 1-888-353-4537 no later than 2 business days prior to the payment (settlement) date. I also authorize the financial institutions involved in the processing of the electronic payment of taxes to receive confidential information necessary to answer inquiries and resolve issues related to the payment.

☐ If a copy of this return is being filed with a state agency(ies) regulating charities as part of the IRS Fed/State program, I certify that I executed the electronic disclosure consent contained within this return allowing disclosure by the IRS of this Form 990/990-EZ/990-PF (as specifically identified in Part I above) to the selected state agency(ies).

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I am an officer of the above named organization and that I have examined a copy of the organization's 2006 electronic return and accompanying schedules and statements and to the best of my knowledge and belief, they are true, correct, and complete. I further declare that the amount in Part I above is the amount shown on the copy of the organization's electronic return. I consent to allow my intermediate service provider, transmitter, or electronic return originator (ERO) to send the organization's return to the IRS and to receive from the IRS (a) an acknowledgement of receipt or reason for rejection of the transmission, (b) an indication of any refund offset, (c) the reason for any delay in processing the return or refund, and (d) the date of any refund.

Form 8453-EO (2006)

BYLAWS
OF
THE NRA FOUNDATION, INC.
(As Amended on May 23, 2006)

ARTICLE I

PRINCIPAL OFFICE AND REGISTERED OFFICE AND AGENT

Section 1.

Principal Office. The principal office of The NRA Foundation, Inc., a nonprofit corporation incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia (the "Foundation"), shall be in the State of Virginia.

Section 2.

Other Offices. The Foundation may have such other office or offices, within or without the State of Virginia, at such suitable place or places designated from time to time by the Board of Trustees of The Foundation.

Section 3.

Registered Office and Agent. The Foundation shall have and continuously maintain a registered office in the District of Columbia, and the Board of Trustees of the Foundation shall appoint and continuously maintain in service a registered agent in the District of Columbia, who shall be an individual resident of the District of Columbia, or a corporation, whether for-profit or not-for-profit.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP

The Foundation shall have no members.

ARTICLE III

TRUSTEES

Section 1.

Number, Election and Term of Office.

A. The governing board of the Foundation shall be referred to as the Board of Trustees. The initial Board of Trustees of the Foundation shall be composed of the individuals named in the Articles of Incorporation of The Foundation.

B. Each Trustee, other than a Trustee who serves in an ex officio capacity, shall hold office for a term of three years and until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified or until his or her earlier resignation, or removal from office or death in office. Trustees may be elected for consecutive terms, but no Trustee may be reelected if he or she has served continuously for six years, however, may be considered for reelection to the Board of Trustees of The Foundation after a one year absence.

C. Trustees, other than a Trustee who serves in an ex officio capacity, shall be elected by the Board of Directors of the National Rifle Association of America ("NRA") at the first meeting of the NRA Board of Directors immediately following the annual meeting of the NRA members, unless otherwise required to fill a vacant seat prior to that meeting by the NRA Board of Directors. All current and future trustees shall fill their terms for the number of terms elected with the provision that in the year such terms will normally expire, the expiration date will coincide with the first meeting of the NRA Board of Directors following the annual meeting of the NRA members.

D. At all times, the majority of the members of the Board of Trustees of The Foundation shall be Directors of the NRA. The remaining members of the Board of Trustees of The Foundation shall be persons who are members of the NRA and, to the extent possible, be persons of outstanding national prominence. The Executive Vice President of the NRA shall be an ex officio Trustee of The Foundation with full powers. It is intended that, at all times, the composition of the Board of Trustees of The Foundation reflect the broadest possible diversity in terms of professions, skills and interests.

E. Any Trustee, by notice in writing to the Board of Trustees, may resign at any time. A Trustee may be removed from office with or without cause prior to the expiration of his or her term by acting of the remaining Trustees at any regular special meeting. Vacancies, as they occur, by resignation, removal, death , incapacity or the like of one or more trustees shall be filled, by act of the remaining Trustees, and any successor so elected shall serve for the balance of the term remaining at the time such vacancy occurs.

F. Increases or decreases in the number of Trustees shall be made by an act of the Trustees. At no time, however, shall there be fewer than seven (7) or more than nine (9) Trustees. Appointment of additional Trustees to the Board may be made by the Board at any time to fill a vacancy which occurs by reason of the increase in the number of Trustees by the Board.

Section 2.

A. Powers and Duties. The Trustees shall have general charge of the affairs, property and assets of the Foundation. It shall be the duty of the Trustees to carry out the aims and purposes of the Foundation and, to this end, to engage and control all of its property and assets.

B. The Board of Trustees may, in its discretion, charter such local or regional affiliates as deemed necessary to further the charitable aims and purposes of the Foundation. However, no charter awarded or conferred under this section shall be construed to confer upon the chartered organization the power to accept service of process on behalf of the NRA Foundation, Inc., or to initiate or defend any suit in the name of the NRA Foundation, Inc.. A clear statement of rights , privileges and responsibilities actually conferred upon the chartered organization shall be included on a suitable written instrument which shall be provided to the chartered organization as evidence of the Board's action.

Section 3.

Quorum : Voting. Except as other wise expressly provided in the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or applicable law; (a) each Trustee shall be considered for quorum purposes and shall be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Trustees; (b) to transact any business the Board must have a quorum of no less than five (5) Trustee members present; and © the vote of a majority of the Trustees present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the action of the Board of Trustees.

Section 4.

Meetings of Trustees. The Annual Meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Foundation shall be held immediately following, and in conjunction with the Annual Meeting of Members of the National Rifle Association of America. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President or upon the written request of two (2) Trustees addressed to the Secretary.

Section 5.

Notice of Meetings of the Board of Trustees. Written notice of the date, time and place of each meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be given by the Secretary or the person or persons calling the meeting not more than sixty days nor fewer than three days before the date of such meeting to each Trustee. Subject to the terms of Article VIII, such notice need not specify the purpose of the meeting and may be given by any reasonable means. Notice of any meeting shall be considered given if mailed or otherwise sent or delivered in writing to each Trustee at his or her address specified in the records of The Foundation. The giving of notice shall be deemed to be waived by any Trustee who shall attend and participate in such meeting without protesting, prior to or at the commencement of such meeting, the lack of proper notice and may be waived in writing, by any Trustee either before, at or after such meeting.

Section 6.

Committees.

A. The Foundation shall have a Planned Giving Advisory Committee whose members shall be composed of persons, chose by the Board of Trustees of The Foundation, who are members of the NRA and who have professional expertise in the instruments and activities of charitable giving. This would include lawyers, certified public accountants, certified trust officer, chartered life underwriters, investment bankers, MAI real estate appraisers, securities analysis, planned giving officers, fund-raisers, and members of similar professions. The purpose of the Planned Giving Advisory Committee is to review, develop and recommend to the Board of Trustees for its consideration various fund-raising strategies, policies and programs

B. The Board of Trustees, from time to time, may create one or more other committees and may delegate to any such committee any of its authority, provided, however, that such delegation is consistent with the laws of the District of Columbia. Each such committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board, shall act only in the intervals between meetings of the Board, shall be subject to the control and direction of the Board and shall report to the Board, as required; provided, however, that any third party shall not be adversely affected by relying upon any act by any such committee within the authority delegated to it. Each such committee shall act by not less than a majority of the authorized number of its members.

Section 7.

Action without a meeting. Any action which might be taken at any meeting of the Trustees (including, without limitation, any action provided for in Article THIRTEEN of the Articles of Incorporation) or at any meeting of a committee may be taken without such meeting by a writing or writings signed by all of the Trustees or all of the members of such committee, as the case may be. The writing or writings evidencing such action shall be filed with the Secretary of The Foundation and inserted in the permanent records relating to the meeting of the Trustees and committees.

Section 8.

Meetings Held Through Communication Equipment. Meetings of the Board of Trustees or any committee of the Board may be held through communications equipment if all persons participating can communicate with each other and such participants shall constitute presence at such meeting.

ARTICLE IV

OFFICERS

Section 1.

Election and Term. The officers of The Foundation shall consist of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Executive Director, and such other officers as the Trustees shall from time to time designate. Other than the Executive Director, the officers shall be elected by the majority of the Board of Trustees and, but for the President, need not be members of the Board at the time of their election. Officers, other than the Executive Director, shall hold office until the close of the next Annual Meeting of the Trustees following the election of such officers and until their successors are elected and qualified. One person may hold more than one office, other than the offices of the President and Secretary. The Executive Director of The NRA Foundation shall serve an indefinite term and shall assume such office by virtue of his or her appointment by the Executive Director of Advancement of the National Rifle Association of America.

Section 2.

Duties. The officers shall have such authority and shall perform such duties as are customarily incident to their respective offices and such other and further duties as are prescribed by these Bylaws and as may from time to time be required of them by the Trustees.

Section 3.

Resignation. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Trustees of The Foundation. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or, if no time is specified, at the time of acceptance thereof as determined by the Board.

Section 4.

Removal. Any officer may be removed with or without cause by the Board of Trustees at any regular or special meeting of the Board.

Section 5.

Vacancies. In the case of the resignation of an officer of The Foundation or, if for any other reason including ineligibility or removal, an officer is unable to complete his or her term, the Board of Trustees shall elect a successor to complete the unexpired term.

ARTICLE V

REPORTS TO NATIONAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA

The Treasurer of The Foundation shall have prepared a certified audit of the Foundation's books and records of the close of business each year and shall furnish a copy to the Board of Trustees. At the Annual Meeting of the NRA, next succeeding the presentation of the certified audit, the President shall present a copy of said audit to the President and Executive Vice President of the NRA and shall make available a copy thereof to any member of the Board of Directors of NRA.

ARTICLE VI

SEAL

The Board of Trustees of The Foundation may provide a corporate seal which shall be in the form of a circle and shall have inscribed thereon the name of The Foundation and the words "Corporate Seal, District of Columbia."

ARTICLE VII

INDEMNIFICATION

The Foundation shall indemnify each of its current and former Trustees and officers for the defense of civil or criminal actions or proceedings to the extent provided below and notwithstanding any other provisions in these Bylaws. The Foundation shall indemnify each such Trustee and officer from and against any and all judgements, fines, amounts paid in settlement, and reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and necessarily incurred or imposed as a result of such action or proceeding or any appeal therein, imposed upon or asserted against him or her by reason of being or having been such a Trustee or officer and acting within the scope of his or her official duties, but only when the determination shall have been within the scope of his or her official duties, but only when the determination shall have been made judicially or in the manner herein provided that he or she acted in good faith for a purpose which he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of The Foundation and, in the case of a criminal action or proceeding, in addition, had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. If not judicially determined, this indemnification shall be made only if The Foundation shall be advised by its Board of Trustees, acting (1) by a quorum consisting of Trustees who are not parties to such action or proceeding upon a finding that the Trustees or officer has met the foregoing applicable standard of conduct, or (2) if a quorum under (1) is not obtainable with due diligence, upon the opinion in writing of independent legal counsel that the Trustee or officer has met such standard. If the foregoing determination is to be made by the Board of Trustees, it may rely as to all questions of law on the advice of independent legal counsel. The right of indemnification herein provided shall in addition to any and all rights to which any Trustee or officer of The Foundation might otherwise be entitled and provisions hereof shall neither impair nor adversely affect such rights.

ARTICLE VIII
AMENDMENTS TO BYLAWS

Section 1.

Voting: These bylaws may be amended at any meeting of the Board of Trustees of The Foundation by majority of the Trustees then serving.

Section 2.

Notice: An amendment to be proposed at a meeting, or the substance thereof, shall be included with the notices of such meeting given to the Trustees. An amendment so made shall be effective immediately after adoption unless an effective date is specifically adopted at the time the amendment is enacted.

ARTICLE IX
FISCAL YEAR

The fiscal year of The Foundation shall be the calendar year.
